Re: United States v. Yong Zhu
Criminal Docket No. 21-265 (PKC)

Dear Counsel:

Enclosed please find additional discovery in accordance with Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, supplementing our productions dated May 25, July 12, and August 5, 2021. The government also requests reciprocal discovery from the defendant. Pursuant to Rule 16.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the government remains available to confer further about pretrial discovery at a mutually convenient time.

The materials provided with today's production collectively bear Bates numbers YZ-001897 through YZ-002457. The materials are being provided subject to the protective order agreed to by the parties and entered by the Court on June 18, 2021. See ECF No. 70 ("the Protective Order"). The government considers certain of the materials produced today to constitute "sensitive discovery material" as that term is defined in the Protective Order. See Protective Order ¶¶ 7-9. Such materials have been separated within the production and have been individually endorsed with the legend "sensitive discovery material."

Today's production will be delivered via the USAFx platform. We recommend that you download a copy of the production for your archives as soon as practicable. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any difficulty accessing or downloading the production.

Future Discussions

If you have any questions or requests regarding further discovery or a disposition of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Please be advised that, pursuant to the policy of the Office concerning plea offers and negotiations, no plea offer is effective unless and until made in writing and signed by authorized representatives of the Office. In particular, any discussion regarding the pretrial disposition of a matter that is not reduced to writing and signed by authorized representatives of the Office cannot and does not constitute a “formal offer” or a “plea offer,” as those terms are used in Lafler v. Cooper, 132 S. Ct. 1376 (2012), and Missouri v. Frye, 132 S. Ct. 1399 (2012).

Very truly yours,

JACQUELYN M. KASULIS
